

Services

PACE believes that the power of emerging technology can be harnessed using the right execution strategies and innovation. We provide exceptional services for the telecom and power industries to provide high efficiency and flexibility. Our core strengths are our knowledge and technological capabilities, which provide advanced services across major industry sectors. Innovative solutions through an adept design and development team helps in the implementation and management of challenging projects. Our state-of-the-art manufacturing units provide a realistic platform for our inquisitive minds. We strive to provide effective solutions for managed services for infrastructure and solar projects all over the world with high efficiency. Inspirational hybrid solutions and services for various purposes across industries are performed with insistent dedication. Our professional team has the ability to think beyond borders and provide unique services for technology driven industries. We offer exclusive product services for installation and commissioning, fault repair, AMC and site/equipment up-gradation, according to the requirement of the customers. Consistency in quality and high efficiency are the two major factors that drive our work force into new avenues of development.

