

Comprehensive O&M Services

Comprehensive O&M Services: PACE offers comprehensive O&M services to optimize your costs and enhance the operational performance of your business. Also protect the assets and the investments of the Towercos & Opcos and extending its life term through our O&M Process. We provide passive infrastructure maintenance, power infrastructure and power equipment maintenance. It includes supply & solutions for capacity up gradation of equipment due to increase in load. We also offer comprehensive and energy efficient solutions for managing all kinds of physical infrastructure network at the operator's site through our expert team of professionals. Energy efficiency, cost efficiency, availability are the key driving factors for the Energy Management O and M Services from PACE. Integrated Energy Management Services that provide economically viable strategies and solutions to maximize the savings for business is one of the specialized capabilities of PACE.

By deploying our sustainable solutions and services, businesses can competently improve their energy management and infrastructure capabilities. We assist the businesses in adopting significant and sustainable approaches that guide their projects towards high levels of profitability. Widely respected and distinguished across the industry, we provide technologically advanced energy management O and M services for a wide gamut of products. Our services cover real-time data capturing by 24 x 7 remote monitoring on key parameters viz. alarms, DG usage, EB availability, Solar Harvest, etc. which helps customers' business needs. Implementation of latest software tools for data collection, site monitoring, analysis of data helps PACE in keeping abreast of the O&M. Our Comprehensive range of O&M services covers the following:

- Equipment covered are: AMF, PIU, PMU, IPMU, IPMS, PPC, Air conditioners, DG sets, Power Plants, SMPS, Cabling, Earthing , etc.
- Preventive Maintenance
- Corrective Maintenance
- Spares supply & Replacement of Faulty modules
- Diesel transportation & Filling
- Facilitating payment of energy bills of grid sites
- Cleaning of Solar panels for Solar sites
- Safety & Security of Assets

Our experience and expertise helps us to maintain the energy efficiency of all the onsite client systems. Our team of technical leaders, supervisors, technicians, surveillance experts, QA and audit engineers, MIS experts, etc. assist us in managing the entire systems. Operations built round the clock to monitor alarms to maintain or achieve better than the contracted up time of the BTS site is of paramount importance of the team. Our well-trained experts provide the best energy management services with routine check and having the preventive maintenance measures in place. Our field and off-site engineers are thoroughly motivated and self-driven to perform and achieve high productivity. PACE Comprehensive O&M Services assures you quality service and focuses on leveraging the customer's business and help them realize their business objectives.